

Treetops inducted into TripAdvisor's Hall of Fame

Treetops Executive Residences – a premium serviced-apartment development operated by DTZ – has been inducted into TripAdvisor's Hall of Fame, after winning the TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence for five consecutive years.

Reaching some 340 million unique visitors monthly, and featuring over 225 million reviews on more than 4.9 million hospitality establishments and tourist attractions, the TripAdvisor group of websites enjoy top-of-mind awareness amongst travelers all over the world.

The Certificate of Excellence award celebrates excellence in hospitality and is given only to establishments that consistently achieve highly rated traveler reviews on TripAdvisor. To honour the crème de la crème, the Hall of Fame was created for those that have clinched the Certificate of Excellence five years in a row. Prestigious brand names that have been inducted into this Hall of Fame include: New York's Langham Place; Bardessono in Napa Valley, California; the Shangri-La Hotel in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia;

Cairo at The First Residence in Egypt; Club Med resorts and other leading industry brands.

TripAdvisor's rigorous selection process utilizes a proprietary algorithm that takes into account the quality, quantity and recency of reviews and opinions submitted by travelers on TripAdvisor over a 12-month period, as well as a business's tenure and ranking on its Popularity Index. To qualify, a business must maintain an overall TripAdvisor star rating of at least four out of five, have a minimum number of reviews and must have been listed on TripAdvisor for at least 12 months.

Launched in September 2000, Treetops Executive Residences is managed by DTZ Debenham Tie Leung Hospitality Management Services. Located along Orange Grove Road, in close proximity to Singapore's shopping and entertainment hub, Orchard Road, Treetops provides resort-style living in the heart of the city and has become the preferred choice for senior managers and leisure travelers round the world.
